

3 December (2021 and ever)

To clarify further,

with that short prayer
i communicated you as my choice for my bride Rebecca however at the same time i wanted GOD's approval [i needed HIS approval thinking back on it now] because there are so many aspects to consider and although i was absolutely positive, only GOD knows because we are both fully known to HIM only - 1 Corinthians 13

To understand Malachi 2:14-16 correctly from our situation it is essential to note that the word in 2:14 is "בריתך" which translates to 'your covenant'.
You are the only one i have ever asked to marry me Rebecca.

i remember praying after one of the moments we shared simply "She, LORD"
AIR science as in i had made my choice and it was you Rebecca.

That day under our tree was GOD's answer to that prayer.

my Eyes of Blue

Around this time of year i like to watch your favourite movie - (you better believe i also make sure to have your favourite cheese [remember?] and your favourite vegetable in the fridge; i'm still nursing the last few tins of your favourite brand of chai [can't seem to find it in the shops these days] and i do not want to use up the last vanilla pod i brought back from the Seychelles. At least i've found a shop that keeps Creole seasoning in stock so i never run out) - and in the dialogue was something the LORD our GOD used to lead me to Proverbs 16:33 and Jeremiah 1:11-12 in the context of the moment we shared all those years before.

this happened end of 2014 or 2015 and the LORD caused me great anguish of spirit because of these verses. i could not understand how i could have dealt treacherously against my 'companion' and 'woman/wife/betrothed one/bride' of my 'covenant' (verse 14) because i had repented and forsaken my sins and was labouring so intensely at composition in order to win your hand, to make you my bride - i could not understand, so i prayed for the LORD to help me to (James 1:5-8).

So the LORD led me through HIS HOLY SPIRIT to a wooded area that was close to where i lived then and as i was walking through this wooded area i came across a bridal bouquet tied up with red and green twine. Earlier that week i had walked past a narrow boat on the canal in the same colour scheme of red and green named 'Rebecca'

You cannot imagine the joy i felt, (perhaps glimpses in my music) You cannot imagine the joy i still feel.
(for compared to the emotion, it is too fleeting, too impermanent) i pray that for your birthday this year the LORD our GOD will put this same joy in your heart Rebecca (your heart that belongs to me as mine does to you and ours does to GOD)

For even though we are searching for each other, the LORD has already found us and with HIS HOLY SPIRIT in us we are never apart [Colossians 2:1-7] (in the Name of JESUS CHRIST our LORD Amen) [The LORD will never forsake us [John 10:27-30] and HE is all powerful and eternal [Matthew 28:18-20] HE knows when is best

i love you Rebecca Maé Gabrielle Gendron
